

201 St. Charles Ave. - Suite 4600 - New Orleans, Louisiana – 70170
(phone) 504-866-5277 – (fax) 504-310-0266
www.filmproductioncapital.com info@filmproductioncapital.com

For Immediate Release: July 9, 2010
Contact: Meggie Holland
318.226.7105
mholland@filmproductioncapital.com

New Orleans, LA – Film Production Capital is pleased to welcome Kevin P. Conway as Vice President of Louisiana Operations and Taylor Morgan as Executive Assistant to William French. Both will join the staff in the New Orleans office.

Mr. Conway graduated from John Carroll University’s Boler School of Business with a marketing degree in 2001. He received both his M.B.A. and J.D. from Loyola University New Orleans in 2010. While attending law school, Mr. Conway served as a business development officer in the Louisiana Economic Development Office of Entertainment Industry Development, where he was actively involved in the enactment of tax incentive legislation and promulgation of the respective rules and regulations.

Mr. Conway is a founding partner of Wonderful Music Group, a collective of like-minded music business professionals committed to bringing the finest creative talents of New Orleans and the state of Louisiana to the world.

Ms. Morgan received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of the South in 2005. Following graduation, Morgan served in the Bush Administration for four years. While at the White House, she assisted in different capacities and ended her tenure as Deputy Associate Director of Mrs. Bush’s Projects and Policy Office, overseeing the first lady's Gulf Coast rebuilding, preservation, education and literacy policy portfolios. Most recently, Morgan worked for the New Orleans Saints.

She also serves on the board of HandsOn New Orleans, as a buddy for Miracle League, and as a consultant to ProjectGoPink.